

Flávia Vieira

Blush

18 September 2020 - 14 November 2020

On September 18th at 7PM, KUBIKULO (Rua da Restauração nº10, Porto) opens the intervention Blush by Flávia Vieira.

"If she be made of white and red, Her faults will ne'er be known, For blushing cheeks by faults are bred, And fears by pale white shown"

William Shakespeare, Love's Labour's Lost, Act I, Scene 2, 1597.

Blush finds a political meaning in make-up pigment, in the sense that engages in a symbolic and ritualistic operation. Being in Western contexts (in the individual sphere, in theatre...) as well as in non-western contexts (body paintings in indigenous cultures), make-up is the expression of a fantasy, of a disguise, of an artifice, of a fake action. Is within this "cosmetic" given by the pigment that an identity "mask" is built.
